Ajax Public Library Board Reflects at Term End

22 October 2026—As its 2022-2026 term comes to a close, the Library Board is reflecting on all the Library has accomplished.

We extend our very sincere appreciation to Library staff, whose dedication to service is evident in their everyday work with our community. Whether their work is front-facing with customers or behind the scenes keeping our systems steady, every role has played a vital part in our progress.

The Board also wishes to express its appreciation for our Chief Librarian and Executive Officer. Together, we share a commitment to maintaining high standards of service and professionalism while continuing to strengthen and grow the Library for Ajax.

We thank the Library team for their energy, patience, and commitment. The Board has been truly fortunate to work alongside such a dedicated group and we look forward, with confidence, to Ajax Public Library's continued success.

Recruitment has begun for the next term of the Library Board. More information can be found on the Town's website (ajax.ca) or Library website (ajaxlibrary.ca).
