

Where We've Been

On December 13, 1952, the doors of the very first Ajax Public Library opened with just 1,175 books and served a population of just over 4,000 residents.

Where We Are

Today, the Ajax Public Library is a gateway to resources and services that can improve quality of life, foster life-long learning & encourage community involvement for all Town of Ajax residents. With three branches to serve the entire community, the library offers over 500 annual programs and events including workshops, training, book clubs, film screening and information sessions or toddlers, kids, teens adults and seniors.

Where We're Going

The Ajax Public Library Board, staff and volunteers look forward to serving the Town of Ajax residents for the next 70 years... and beyond! Your support is greatly appreciated.

Donor Wall

Established in 2001 as part of the Friends of the Ajax Public Library's "Million Dollar Campaign" to raise funds to build the Main Branch, the Donor Wall is a source of great pride for the library and its staff.

Today, the Donor Wall continues to recognize those who contribute a monetary gift to the Library. The funds donated are used in a variety of ways, including on-going improvements to our facilities, enhancement of our collections and expansion of our free programs and services.

When you donate to the library, you will receive one metal book-spine plate - a great way to proudly display your own name as a donor!

You can also gift a plate to recognize an avid reader in your family or to honour the memory of a long-time library supporter. What a great gift idea for the holiday season!

With a minimum donation of $100, your book spine plate will be personalized with the name and message you choose.

To make a donation, please complete the Donation Form on the opposite page and return it, with payment, to the Library. You will receive a tax receipt shortly after your donation submission.
